

Jesus's Disciples

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

Jesus walked along the banks of the Sea of Galilee. He saw two fishermen standing on the shore. He said to Simon and Andrew, "Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately, the two men left their nets and followed Jesus.

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

Jesus walked along the shoreline with Simon and Andrew. They saw a small fishing boat with two brothers and their father in. The men were getting their nets ready for a day of fishing.

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

The brothers were called James and John. Jesus spoke to them. They also immediately left their nets, the boat and their father, and followed Jesus.

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

On the way to Galilee, Jesus found Phillip and his friend Bartholomew. They started following Jesus and became his next disciples.

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

Thomas and Matthew were Jesus' next disciples. Matthew was a tax collector and some people thought tax collectors were cheats, but Jesus knew Matthew was a good man.

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

James was the youngest disciple and was sometimes called James the Younger.

The Story of Jesus' Disciples

Simon and Thaddeus followed Jesus next and then Judas became Jesus' last disciple.

