Dear Parents and Carers,

Sadly I feel moved to resend a letter that was first sent in March 2017 regarding the school stance on anti social behaviour on or around the school premises.

There have been a number of instances when disputes between parents have led to unfortunate situations developing on the school site, which have impacted negatively on our pupils.

We are all members of the Great Barford Primary Academy community; so please ensure that any issues regarding personal feelings towards other parents are left at the school gates, for the welfare of all of our children.

The staff members at Great Barford Primary Academy are here to educate your children and to ensure that they are safe and have the best quality education possible. Your children and their education must come first. The children should not be witness to or be involved in adult disputes,

Staff members at the school are not qualified to deal with parental disputes or antisocial behaviour. The school has a zero tolerance policy towards this behaviour and will call upon the assistance of other agencies to deal with this if necessary.

I hope that this makes the schools position clear to all. Thank you for the support of all those parents who have raised their concerns about these incidences and the impact that they have had.

Regards,

Sarah Evans
Headteacher
